

Meet the Farmer Farmers Ronnie & Deborah Brogden Brogden's Produce

Creedmoor, NC
919-528-1767

The couple met in 1998 at a dance at a local steakhouse and got married a year later. Deborah Brogden went from assistant manager at the Walmart in South Hill, Va., to a farmer's wife. Farmer Ronnie Brogden, who has farmed his whole life, owns about 2 acres and rents several hundred more. He phased out of growing tobacco in 2004 and switched to produce, grains and hay. Farmers Brogden have been selling at local farmers' markets since 2008.

What's Growing?

A variety of vegetables and fruits are available April-November. The produce items listed below are available in season: cantaloupe, watermelon, butterbeans, okra, russet potatoes, sweet potatoes, collards, zucchini, yellow squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, green peppers, hot peppers, corn, onions, cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower, beets, carrots, Swiss chard, eggplant, lettuce, herbs, sugar peas, kale, bok choy, and arugula.

Buying from Brogden's Produce

Delivery in North Wake County is possible on Mondays or Tuesdays with a $75 minimum order. Farmer Ronnie also sells their produce at the Wake Forest Farmers' Market and Farmer Deborah sells their produce at the Creedmoor Farmers' Market.

Farm to ChildCare

YUMMY, FRESH, HEALTHY...NC FRUITS AND VEGETABLES!